TAFT AND SHERMAN NOMINATED AGAIN

Last Saturday at Chicago Taft and Sherman were renominated by the republican convention. Both nominations were made on the first ballot Roosevelt having announced that he would not accept a nominaton from a convention containing stolen delegates. On roll call over 100 votes were cast for Roosevelt despite the fact that his name was not presented. some 300 more Roosevelt delegate refused to vote. It is generally conceded by the papers in reporting the convention that the nomination for Taft was secured by steam roller methods and that if the delegates seated by the national committee had not been permitted to vote on their own cases that Roosevelt would have controlled the convention by a good majority.

The convention also adopted a conservative paltform. The California delegates made a strong fight for Roosevelt and Governor Johnson made a very favorable impression in the east. In fact through his efforts the Roosevelt forces only lacked two votes of controlling the convention on the seating of the two Taft delegates. In this instance as in all others the fact that the contested delegates were permitted to vote won the day for Taft fo'lowers.

A meeting of the progressive delegates was called immediatelly after the convention and steps were taken toward organization and Theodore Roosevelt placed in nomination as president of the new party. Governor Johnson has named a committee of eighteen to handle the organization of the new party and a convention will probably be called in August to meet at Denver.

Roosevelt is quoted by the papers as saying that just before Taft was nominated a group of southern delegates came to him and offered to swing delegates enough to give him the nomination. Roosevelt refused to accept unless the Roosvelt delegates that were elected by the voters at the direct primaries were seated. This was impossible to do in the short time although a number of delegates signed an agreement.

The preliminary proceedings of the Democratic convention at Baltimore give evidence that the steam roller will be the principal thing there and that the democratic candidate will be named by the trusts. It is considered that in this event that the progressive democrats will join with the progressive Repubilcans. Such an alliance with a thoroughly progressive platform would make an extremely strong combination and many predict that it would wipe out both of the old parties at the fall elections.

COAST BOOSTERS PLAN EXCURSION

(Special to the Press)

FORT BRAGG, June 25—Since Willits gets the Fourth of July celebration this year and Ukiah is to have a hop festival, the boosters of the coast are now laying preparations to celebrate the opening of their railroad with a big excursion from San Francisco and all points along the line. The idea was just put forward a few days ago and a great celebration and general good time is now assured to all if the excursion can be brought to pass.

The culmination of the whole thing now rests with the railway company, and as far as they are oncerned, the prospects at present are very promising.

The general favored plan is to have the excursion train stay in town over night and return on the following day. In this event, all visitors can rest assured that they will be accorded a jolly good time and every minute will be occupied. If such an excurison comes it is probable that efforts will be made to have the event made annual.

AUDITOR MATHEWS DANGEROUSLY ILL

Auditor C. W. Mathews, who is in San Francisco in a hospital, is very low and it is feared that there are little hopes of his recovery.

JUDGE C H CONNICK FOR CONGRESSMAN

Judge Clifton H. Connick, following the time honored method of presenting his name to the people of his district, has inserted his announcement as a candidate for the republican nomination for congress in the proper column of the Press. His nomination will be subject to the primaries to be held September 3rd.

Judge Connick is not unknown to the people of this district as he has made several trips on business and pleasure and also in the interests of his candidacy. By the people who know him best, his neighbors in Humboldt county, Judge Connick comes highly recommended. He has proved an energetic campaigner and on his election to the superior bench beat a man who was thought invincible. In addition to this Judge Connick has made good on the job. While there are men in Humboldt county who differ with him in some of his views there is not a man there or anywhere else who knows him that will not tell you that Judge Connick is honest and that in his public career he has always been for the square deal.

Judge Connick is a progressive and a thorough believer in the fact that the people are competent to govern themselves. He is not the man to beat around the bush and hedge but will give you a fair expression of his views. He is eminently qualified to represent the people in congress and one in whom the peoples interests would be absolutely safe.

J W KINGREN WILL BE AN ATTORNEY

(Press Special Service)

POINT ARENA, June 27—J. W. Kingren disposed of his wholesale liquor store to Carl St Ores of Elk yesterday. Mr. Kingren has built up a splendid business since being in Point Arena and Mr. St Ores intends to run the place on the same lines and will undoubtedly make good. Mr. Kingren has been studying law for sometime and it is understood that he will devote his time to legal practice in the future and will remain at Point Arena. Mr. Kingren has successfully handled a number of local cases and naturally has quite a reputation as a desciple of Blackstone here. It would be no surprise to his friends if he should some day be one of the shining legal lights of the state.

A SUCCESSFUL OPERATION

Miss Helen Maddrill was successfully operated on for appendicitis at the Lathrop-Malpas hospital Wednesday. The operation was performed by Dr. S. S. Bogle, the noted surgeon of Santa Rosa, assisted by Drs. Malpas and Van Allen. Miss Maddrill is a sister of Dr. J. D. Maddrill and came here from Oakland to be under Dr. Lathrop-Malpas' treatment. She proved to be suffering from chronic appendicitis and an operation was found necessary.

Mrs. Hazel J. Gillespie commenced suit this week for divorce against Monroe Gillespie on the ground of failure to provide. In the complaint the plaintiff asks for the custody of their three minor children, aged 12 and 7 years and nine months. The couple were married at Crescent City, Del Norte county, Decembe 6, 1898. Messrs. McNab & Hirsch are attorneys for the plaintiff.

HORSE KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Walter Holmes, driver for the State highway surveyors, narrowly averted being seriously injured in a runaway accident Monday. His horses became frightened and ran away, one of the horses being struck by the southbound passenger train at the Perkins street crossing and its foot was almost severed. The animal was so seriously injured that he was shot by Chief of Police Brewer. James Davis, who was in the rig, was badly bruised and lacerated about the face and head. The wagon was almost completely demolished.

Farmers Enjoy Annual Outing

The second annual farmers barbecue last Saturday at Clark's grove was as is usual with antyhing the farmers undertake a very successful affair. The only thing to mar the pleasure of the occasion was the thunderstorm and threatened rain. The rain however did not come and although it kept a few away did not interfere with the good time of those who attended.

In addition to numberless rigs and autos Lambert & Paynes big truck and Mack Howard's truck were pressed into service and hauled people to the grounds. It is said that in the neghborhood of 1200 farmers and their families and invited guests partook of the bounteous repast and spent the atfernoon listening to the speakers and the band, and getting acquainted with their neighbors.

The instrumental music was furnished by the ladies band and was thoroughly enjoyed and did a great deal to add to the pleasure of the occasion. Several numbers were rendreed by the quartet which was also greatly appreciated.

THE FEED

The comittees in charge of the grounds had been working hard for several days getting things in shape for the crowd. A number of tables had been erected and seats were built and everything possible done for the convenience of the guests. The beautiful canopy of trees in which the exercises were held gave the affair a beautiful setting and insured protection from the elements. The farmers wives had been busy and there was ample pastry for double the number. Everyone brought more than enough for the family and the result was abundance. Baskets of berries were profusely scattered over the tables and there was an abundance of good fresh milk. The committee also provided bread and coffee.

THE BARBECUE

Mr. Richey and his sons had charge of the meat and had been busy since the night before getting it done to a turn in time for the barbecue. Supported on iron rods over the pit of glowing coals was a ton of meat, and the preparing of it was no small task. The meat whch had been donated by the farmers consisted of 2 goats, 4 hogs. 3 mutton, 1 veal and three beeves. It is needless to say that when the farmer donates he only gives the best and that the meat was the finest in the land.

THE SPEAKERS

State Horticultural commssioner A. J. Cook was the first speaker. Mr. Cook was only able to remain between trains on account of other engagements and so was met at noon with an auto and taken to the grounds. After his address he was taken to the train in record time by Attorney Hale. Mr. Cooks address was a very able one and was listened to with interest. He urged upon the farmers the absolute necessity of strict quarantine laws and the necessity of keeping a close watch for pests that destroy crops. He also gave an insight into the work being carried on in this line by the state commission.

The next speaker was Assemblyan Griffin of Modesto who delivered a fine address on co-operation among farmers. Assemblyman Griffin is himself closely interested in the work of the farmers as he owns several large ranches. He is a fiirm believer in the farmer getting things down to an eight hour basis and on his ranches his employes are doing the days work in this time. His talk was greatly appreciated and will do much good. This was Mr. Griffins first visit to this section of the state and he was very much pleased with the prosperous condition of the farmers club and said that it was doing great work. He was taken for an auto ride over the valley and was surprised at the crops that could be grown here without irrigation. He also visited the state hospital and took an active interest in it. He remarked that it was generally recognized in the assembly as one of the most economically and best conducted state institutions.

THE FARMERS CLUB

The meeting was presided over by President Johnson and seated with him were Vice President Mack Howard and Secretary Bernhard and a number of the directrs. The speakers were introduced by the secretary. Pamphlets setting out the work being attempted by the farmers club were distributed and the blank applications for membership that were attached were given special attention. It is reported that a number of applications were filled out and handed in.

A GRAND TIME

The joy of spending a day with the farmers can only be appreciated by those who have had the pleasure. The neighboring towns were fairly represented many of the guests having driven a good many miles to be present. The regret was freely expressed by the members of the club that it was impossible to invite the town in a body but as such a crowd would have taxed the hospitality of even the farmers.

A number of town people were present however having been specially invited by members of the club. It is needless to say that the next annual picnic and barbecue is being looked anxiously forward to.

BIG SPEEDWELL TRUCK BEGINS HAULING BARK

Lambert & Payne left this week for Anderson valley with their big Speedwell 4 ton motor truck to commence hauling tan bark from the valley to Cloverdale. They have a large contract and will be kept busy there for several months. On leaving Ukiah the truck was loaded with several tons of freight which was shipped from here for the Anderson valley merchants.

The bark will be hauled about 30 miles and they expect to take more than three and one-half cords each trip. A great rack has been built for the machine, thus enabling them to carry an exceptionally large load. The power in the car has been thoroughly tested and Lambert & Payne are confident that the motor will pull all that can be loaded onto the truck.

As soon as the bark contract is completed they have taken a contract for hauling grapes to the Asti winery near Cloverdale.

ROSELLE GETS FIVE YEARS

Phil Roselle was sentenced to five years in San Quentin Monday afternoon by Judge White. Attorney Held raised the question that one of the jurors was asleep durng the trial of the case and asked for a new trial but the motion was overruled.

GIRLS RESCUE DROWNING MAN

The Misses Chapman rescued a drowning man from the river one day last week. They were driving and saw a man in the water who had apparently fallen out of his buggy while crossing the river. Instead of screaming the girls proceeded to rescue him risking their own lives in the treacherous current. They finally succeeded in getting him out of the water and resuscitating him. In their excitement they forgot to learn his name. Ukiah is now getting quite a list of girl heroes.

SANDELIN HAD A FINE TIME

Frank Sandelin and family returned from Fort Bragg this week and report a fine time. Frank claims that he did not get a square deal, however, as several hundred dollars were raised to entertain the Ukiahites and as he was the only one on the ground he asked for the money and they refused to turn it over. The result was that he was compelled to spend his own money. He says that the new railroad is beautiful scenically but that the track is so crooked that the cars are crooked and the company is looking for crooked conductors. Frank neglected to state about the passengers.

CROWDED HOUSE AT MUSICAL RECITAL

The 15th Annual Recital of the Interstate musical class Wednesday evening reflects credit on all who participated, teacher and pupils alike nor did they alone reap all the profit, for the large and appreciative and cultured audience found the program instructive and illustrative of the best in music, as well as a delightful evenings entertaniment. Too much credit cannot be given to Mrs. Gibson in directing her pupils thought and aim toward the better things in music, and in so admirably adjusting the selecting to the abilities and temperaments of her pupils.

She has scored a huge success, and the standard set, will be the standard by which future recitals will be measured for some time to come.

The pupils themselves did not merely play the compositions—they interpreted them, and every one of the eighteen numbers bespoke not only technical ability but a goodly measure of hard work in preparation.

An interesting feature of the program was a piano contest ("In Uniform March)" played successively by two quartets of little ladies, and the award and fitting presentation remarks by Prof. L. W. Babcock.

The specialties under the management of Mrs. Nellie Francis Gibson and Mrs. Jessie Hildreth deserve special mention.

The decorations by Mrs. J. A. Jamison assisted by High school and Inter State pupils were exceptionably beautiful and tasty.

THEODORE HALE BUYS THE HILDRETH RANCH

One of the largest real estate deals to be made here recently was the purchase of the Hildreth ranch, south of town, by T. P. Hale. The ranch, which has been owned for many years by W. J. Hildreth, is recognized as one of the best in the valley, the land in that vicinity being the very best soil and most productive.

Mr. Hale purchased 1,000 acres of the 1,800 in the place, nearly all of which is valley land. There is an abundant supply of water and the entire acreage can be easily irrigated at a very low cost, it being only snecessary to pipe the water from ome of the many large springs. Of the purchase made by Mr. Hale over 300 acres are bottom land and is divided into 12 acres of alfalfa, 52 of wheat, 50 of oats, 10 of corn, 16 of prunes, 12 of hops, 6 of beets, 2 of plums, a 10 acre orchard and 6 acres of vineyard. No personal property is included in the tranfser.

It is said that the purchase price was in the neighborhood of $75,000. Mr. Hale has not yet decided what disposition will be made of the property, but he is inclined to hold the place for several years when it will increase greatly in value. He has already received a numper of tempting offers for subdivision but it is not probable that this will be done.

T. P Hale has been one of the most active buyers of Mendocino county property and now owns some good land here as well as in Redwood valley. The sale of the Hildreth ranch was made by the Ukiah Realty company.

THOREN BEATING IT ON WAY TO NEW YORK

By HARVEY THOREN

(Special to the Press)

HARDIN, Montana, June 17—There has been but few exciting events since I wrote from East Helena on May 31. In Toston, June 1st, I saw a cow boy ride into a saloon and order a drink which was given to him.

In Belgrade, June 3rd, I got a job digging an irrigation ditch and it surely was some job. Got $7.50 for the work, however, which came in very handy.

I stopped at Billings on the 14th waiting for my photos to come by mail, but owing to a washout on the road did not get them. Walked out seven miles to a farm house, where I found shelter, but was soaked through by the steady downpour of rain. On June 15th arrived at Huntley where left the Northern Pacific and took the Burlington route.

Perhaps some will wonder why I left the northern route for the Burlington. On May 25th I crossed the Missouri river below Drummond, then walking on that side of the river to the headwaters, consisting of three rivers the Galalin, Madison and Jefferson, named by Lewis and Clark in 1805 and are now called the three forks of the Missouri river.

Leaving Livingston on June 11 I crossed the Yellowstone river which was running full bank. In northern Montana, as well as California, it is mostly mining districts and I have some very good specimen with me. In Cataldo, where I passed on the 14th, are the richest lead mines in the United States. The hill that Butte is built on is considered the richest hill in the world. In Wallace and Mullan are the big smelters, the latter being called the morning melter. The place I stopped last night is also a big industrial center. The Pryor Sheep shearing pens are located there of which Dave Rae, formerly of Ukiah, is manager. They clip the wool with compressed air and about 100 men are employed at the plant. One of the employes here, Mr. Ellis, is the best sheep shearer in the world, shearing 383 sheep in ten hours. Another clips 375 head in that length of time. The boys at the plant took up a collection for me, from which I received $4.10, and I was badly in need of it.

Why I took the Burlington route is because I wanted to go through the Crow Indian reservation and Custer's battle field, and it is also nearer Chicago.

When I left Ukiah I thought this would be a pleasure trip but I find it is very different than I expected.

THE SAVINGS BANK MAKES GOOD REPORT

In another column will be found the report of the Savings Bank of Mendocino county. This report is a particularly good one and shows that the Savings Bank is in fine condition and that it has ample to meet any demands made on it. The bank is also announcing a four per cent dividend to its depositors, free of taxes. A savings bank is one of the important institutions in a community as it gives the person with small capital a chance for a safe investment. The Savings Bank of Mendocino county is faithfully performing this mission.

San Francisco Life Insurance Co.,

Gentlemen:—

We wish to thank you for your promptness in settling the death claim on the life of our son, Plinio Zanoni. The check for $2,500.00 reached us within ten days of the date of his death. While no amount of money could recompense us for the loss of of the companionship of our boy, through his foresight he has protected us in our old age from financial worries.

When your agent insured him we did not particularly favor it, as we thought a young man of 22 in perfect health did not need life insurance. The uncertainty of life has been shown us in a forceful manner.

His policy was taken in June, 1911, and only one premium of $72.80 was paid. The investment of this sum has provided us with $2,500.00. He was a good son while with us, and, through his action in insuring in our favor, he has continued to provide for us, even though he has passed away.

Sincerely yours,

D. M. Zanoni Mary Zanoni

PROMINENT AUTO MAN VISITS THIS COUNTY

Noran De Vaux, manager of the Reo Pacific company of San Francisco and Los Angeles, coast agents for Reo automobiles, was a prominent visitor in UKiah this week. He is accompanied by his brother, Al De Vaux, who is foreman of the shops of the Reo Pacific company . The gentlemen are both prominent automobilemen of the south and while here are the guests of George Lambert, Mendocino county agent for the company.

The week was spent on a camping and fishing expedition near the dam on Eel river and some splendid large trout were caught. Mr. De Vaux has proven a champion fisherman and some remarkable catches were made, almost exceeding the bag limit. They had a most delightful outing while in the camp and regret that business calls them home today.

Messrs. De Vaux were traveling in a big 6-60 Premier car, which is also sold by the Reo Pacific company. The car is very large and powerful and the drive over the hill north of Potter was made without the least exertion on the part of the big machine.

The Reo company has recently taken the coast agency for the Little roadster, a classy machine of 20 horse power, and Mr. De Vaux states that he anticipates a great selling season for the new car.

The demonstrating car arrived on the coast only last week and already a great number of orders have been placed with the agents.

TURLOCK GAS PLANT COMPLETED

Granville Sapp returned from the south the first of the week where he has been employed in the installing of the Turolck gas plant. The plant is owned by Messrs. Cawlwell & McGilvary and the construction work was under the supervision of John Beals, formerly of Ukiah. Mr. Sapp has joined the benedicts since leaving Ukiah, being united in marriage in San Francisco shortly after his departure from here to Miss Lee Myers. Mrs. Sapp accompanied him to Ukiah.

TREE BLOCKS TRAVEL

Jack Palmer who has been superintending the construction of some buildings at Hopland gave his friends conisderable worry last Friday night. He did not arrive at home for supper and after his friends were about to send out a search party he finally showed up with his auto. It seems that a large tree had fallen across the road on the east side of the river near the Largo bridge and blocked the traffic. The cause of his delay was the necessity of making the trip back around the river as the tree could not be got around.

FORMER TEACHER VISITING HERE

Mrs. Roach and son of Berkeley are here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Lew Roach. Mrs. Roach will be remembered as Miss Lizzie Dihel, formerly one of the popular teachers in the Ukiah grammar school. This is her first visit here in a number of years and she is kept busy visiting friends and renewing acquaintance with her former scholars.

T. T. Barker, formerly of Ukiah, passed through on the northbound train Monday on his way to Fort Bragg where he will transact business. He is now located at Penn's Grove where he has a large chicken farm.

Miss Laurie Holman and Miss Laura Peterson of San Francisco are visiting at the home of Mrs. Abbie Jones McCorquodale this week. The ladies report a very enjoyable time and have been on several long hikes since their arrival here.

Mrs. McFaul of Union landing came over last week accompanied by her mother Mrs. Dean. Mrs. McFaul returned Friday and her mother will remain here for a more extended visit.

TRINITY COUNTY MAN ANSWERS AD

Do Press ads pay? Ask the Cox Hardware company. They received the following letter this week: "Cox Hardware Co., Ukiah. Please send me by return mail full particulars of the Gilson gasoline engine as advertised in the Ukiah Republican Press. Do you carry small gasoline tractors? If so what do they cost, what can they do and what is their guarantee? If you do not carry them can you tell me where they can be obtaned? (signed) Lake Mountain, Trinity county, Calif." Here is a letter that speaks for itsself. Three weeks ago the Cox Hardware company advertised the Gilson engines. They received a number of local inquiries in addition to this one from Trinity county. The whole story is that the Press reaches the people and lots of them. Press advertisements call the attention of the people to the lines you handle and sell the goods. Results from a Press ad are not the exception to the rule but the rule. From time to time we have been publishing notices of what Press ads are doing. This is the way we advertise them. The advertising is bringing us lots of new ads. Similar advertising will bring you new business.

WE hate to pay any attention to our contemporaries when they get to exceeding the speed limit but sometimes their statements are so comical that we can't help replying. The Dispatch last week devoted conisderable space telling their readers of the trouble and expense they have been to in regard to securing the real estate transfers as an exclusive feature etc et al. The fact that they are publishing the real estate is a commendable feature but the statement that they have the exclusive use of the records prepared by the Halliday Abstract company is a misstatement as Mr. Halliday is preparing the copy for the papers of the county and other clients and papers that desires can secure the copy. The Press had also been negotiating for such a service for some time but as it was too expensive for one paper to handle as an exclusive service we were unable to make the arrangements until Mr. Halliday announced his intention of preparing it.

When a man has a scheme that will pay 15 per cent and offers to let you in on the ground floor at par it is not right for you to take advantage of him and buy his stock.

THE one thing that California needs is the way of legislation more than anthing else is the "Blue Sky" law of Kansas. It is said that the promoters of the California Mail Order house had put the same game over in other states and that the result was the same as in this. If there had been a commission in this state to advise the people of their records several thousand dollars would have been saved to investors who could ill afford to lose their mite. The law should deal the same with a stock salesman who misrepresents a project to you in order to secure your money as it does with the highwayman who hits you over the head and then goes through your pockets. The only suggestion however is that the highwayman be not confined in the same jail as the stock salesman as even a highwayman should have some protection.

THE town trustees of Ukiah have introduced an ordinance fixing the license for selling stock in this city at $300 a quarter. Their idea is to try and get the license high enough to keep such fakirs away. The board of supervisors should follow the matter up by a similar ordinance. The people in the country are just as much entitled to protction as the people in the city.

COVELO STOCKMAN WAS VERY NERVOUS

It is not always a pleasant task to get a marriage license, judging from the experiences of a young stockman from the northern part of the county as told in the San Francisco Call. So confused was Albert Henry Martindale, a rancher from Covelo, that when applyng for a marriage license at San Rafael this week his fiancee, Miss Verle Adelle Johnson, a San Francisco school teacher, had to answer the questions asked by the county clerk in issuing the document. When it came time for Martindale to write his name his hand shook so badly that Miss Johnson had to guide it with hers. The license was issued and the couple were married by Rev. C. H. Stevens at the Congregational church. Martindale gave his age as 26, while the bride confessed to being three years his senior.

NEW STREET LIGHTS

A new string of lights has been placed across State street between the garages. The new lights are in the shape of an arch and the effect is very pleasing at night. The work was done by Engineer William Bromley and his corps of electricians and it is very probable that similar arches will be placed the entire length of State street.

Women and Stocks.

Women speculators have a habit of giving to brokers orders with a string attached to them. A woman who owned some bank stock asked a broker to sell it at 250 if he thought she could not get any more for it. The market in this stock had been inactive for months, and 250 was the highest price ever recorded for it. The next day the broker had a chance to sell the stock at 250. It so happened that on the same day a lively demand for this bank stock developed, and before the day was over it was selling at 300. The broker wrote to his woman customer that he had sold her stock for $250 a share and would she send her certificate to him for delivery to the purchaser? She refused to deliver the stock.

"You ought to have known better than to sell it for 250," she remonstrated. "I am going to sell it today myself for 300."

It was not until the broker appealed to the courts that he succeeded in getting the stock from the woman.—Strand Magazine.

Pretty Fine Scratches.

Most people consider a polished surface as something absolutely smooth—that is, something with no scratches on it whatever. To polish a thing, however, the very reverse is done to it It is filled with very fine scratches All eyeglass lenses, glass for mirrors, furniture, etc., are rubbed with fine emery paper and later with an extremely fine powder which gives the finishing touches in the shape of very fine scratches Now the question arises as to just how fine the scratches must be—that is, how far apart they must be, for big scratches a good distance apart give anything but a polished surface. The answer is that the scratches or ridges between must be less than one-quarter the wave length of the light that falls on the surface for the light to be reflected and thus give the effect of a polished surface. This is less than one two-hundred-thousandth of an inch for light waves. No breaking up of the waves is caused, and they consequently are reflected in their original form.—New York Tribune.

The Offense Defined.

General Craft, an attorney of Terre Haute, Ind., was once called into a jewelry store in the town to settle a dispute.

"See here, general," explained the proprietor, "if I take a watch from Mr. Smith here and make repairs that cost me 10 cents and then keep it hanging up for a week and charge him $6 when he comes to get it, what percentage do I make? We have been figuring for half an hour and only get up to 000 per cent, and that is but a dollar, so we decided to leave it to you."

"Well," said the general gravely, "you must know that it is a fact, and it has been demonstrated by calculating machines, that at certain points in progressive numbers the law governing them changes. In your case the law would change long before it reached the $6 and would run out of percentage and into what is known and designated as larceny."

Open Door and a Light.

The wives of north country colliers observe a very touching and pathetic custom when an accident occurs in the pit. Directly it is known to the wife of a collier that an accident has happened in the pit where her husband works and that his fate is uncertain she throws open the house door, and, however inclement the weather may be, she keeps the door open and a candle burning in the window night and day till the man is brought home, dead or alive. In some cases the door has remained open and the candle alight during several weeks.—London Graphic.

A Curious Superstition.

The ancients believed that the marrow of the human backbone often transformed itself into a serpent. Pliny ("Natural History," volume 10, page 66) says that the marrow of a man's backbone will breed to a snake. The Chinese (Worde's "Eastern Travels") burned the backbone to "destroy serpents that might hatch therefrom."

A Tart Critic.

The Abbe d'Aubignac, who wrote admirably on dramatic composition and had instanced many living examples of failure in that direction, was so imprudent after thirty years' silence as to write a tragedy himself. In the preface he boasted that he, of all dramatists, had most scrupulously observed the rules of Aristotle, whose inspiration he had followed! To this it was replied by one who had suffered from his criticism, "I do not quarrel with the Abbe d'Aubignac for having followed the precepts of Aristotle, but I cannot parden the precepts of Aristotle that caused the abbe to write such a tragedy."

Practical Point of View.

The man watched his wife as she entered the voting booth.

"Do you like to see a woman mingling with a lot of men at a polling place?" inquired a bystander.

"It depends a great deal on the way she votes," said the husband, who was a practical man.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

CAN YOU GRASP IT?

You look upon ice in summer as a sort of luxury to "keep" foods in condition and lower the degree of humidity. But do you not know that ice is a necessity for the prevention of much sickness and possibly, death. The cooling effect of ice keeps down fevers and prevents many troubles due to the heat. We sell the best and purest ice and charge the least for it.

THE CRYSTAL ICE WORKS

HOW TO PRESERVE YOUTH AND BEAUTY.

One great secret of youth and beauty for the young woman or the mother is the proper understanding of her womanly system and well-being. Every woman, young or old, should know herself and her physical make up. A good way to arrive at this knowledge is to get a good doctor book, such for instance, as "The People's Common-Sense Medical Adviser," by R. V. Pierce, M. D., which can readily be procured by sending thirty-one cents for cloth-bound copy, addressing Dr. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y.

The womanly system is a delicate machine which can only be compared to the intricate mechanism of a beautiful watch which will keep in good running order only with good care and the proper oiling at the right time, so that the delicate mechanism may not be worn out. Very many times young women get old or run down before their time through ignorance and the improper handling of this human mechanism. Mental depression, a confused head, backache, headache, or hot flashes and many symptoms of derangement of the womanly system can be avoided by a proper understanding of what to do, in those trying times that come to all women.

MRS. WILLIAMS.

MRS. G. H. WILLIAMS, of Lynnhaven, Va., wrote: "It is six years since my health gave way. I had female trouble and all the doctors (I employed three) said I would die. I was not able to do my work, had to hire someone all the time. Finally, I read in the papers about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and decided to try it. I had not taken but one bottle until I found it had done me good. I took, in all, five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now I am able to do all my housework, and have gained fourteen pounds. I advise all women who suffer from female trouble to try your 'Favorite Prescription.' It's the only medicine on earth."

Local Happenings

Mrs. Chas. Underhill of Turlock has been here visiting. She reports that they are getting their new ranch in fine shape and that Chas. likes that section very much.

STALLION BOARD AGENT IN TOWN

Dr. E. G. Glaisyer of the California Stallion Registration board has been here for the past week getting information in regard to the attitude of the owners of stallions and jacks in this county in regard to the state law compelling registration. He reports that the attitude of the horsemen in this regard is good and that they generally regard the state law as a good one and are anxious to comply with its terms. Dr. Glaisyer made one arrest here but as the few others in the county who had failed to comply with the law have promised to do so he believes that no further arrests will be necessary.

Among the provisions of the law is that all animals for breeding purposes be recorded in the recorders office; that the individual owner of the animal have a copy of his certificate from the state board posted in a conspicious place both on the outside and inside of the stable where the animal is stood. This protects the owner of mares as he can determine for himself whether or not the animal is as represented.

Dr. Glaisyer reports that he is well pleased with the high grade of stock in this county and says that Mendocino county people are fortunate in having so many blooded stallions and jacks He predicts that Mendocino county will soon be one of the banner counties in the state for good horses. He expects to again visit this section in the near future and at that date if all have not complied with the law more arrests will follow.

The old fashioned preacher was a great exhorter, for no matter what the subject of his sermon, he awlays wound up with a fervid exhortation for instant compliance on the part of his hearers. The present writer wishes he had the power to effectually exhort all the readers of the Republican Press to join the International Bible Question Club. No matter whether you are old or young, Catholic or Protestant, or an outsider, it will be an infinite benefit to you to read and ponder the Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson, now running in this paper, reading them in connection with the International Sunday School Lesson. These questions grip everybody; they are as varied as is human experience, and while they teach nothing direct, they draw from every reader the best that is in him. They teach more by suggestion than is possible by direct teaching or dogma. Try them for yourself.

You become a member of our Local Club by commencing this course of reading with our issue for June 28th and cutting a coupon out of this paper each week, from that time up to 52 weeks, certifying that the reading has been done.

There are five solid gold medals five sterling silver medals, five teachers' Bibles, and thirty-five valuable books to be given away as prizes, to our class of papers as previously explained, to those who send in the most coupons out of the 52. The ties are to be broken by the best answers to the five questions that are to be answered in wrtiing. You will need the Republican Press for yourself or a friend. MAN REPORTED DEAD IS VERY MUCH ALIVE

According to the Advocate, Gus Newberg, the late second mate of the steamer Brunswick, who was supposed to be enjoying himself among the daisies by this time, suddenly made his appearance in San Francisco last week.

About three weeks ago Newberg mysteriously disappeared from the steamer National City on her up trip from San Francisco to Fort Bragg between the hours of 12 m. and 4 a. Judging from letters received from his friends it was supposed that he had committeed suicide. However, the general supposition is that he stowed himself away on the ship in an attempt to run a bluff on his sweetheart who had turned him down or that he is partly crazy. Friends have met him in San Francisco, but he refuses to discuss the subject.

Christian Science services are held in the Preston Building every Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m. Lesson Sermon at 11 a. m. Wednesday evenings at 8. Subject for June 30 "Christian Science."

Frank Albertson is now delivering a lecture and giving object lessons in fertilizing. He is using as an illustration prunes from Hugh Cox's field. The result is all in favor of the fertilizer. If you are skeptical call and let Frank explain it to you.

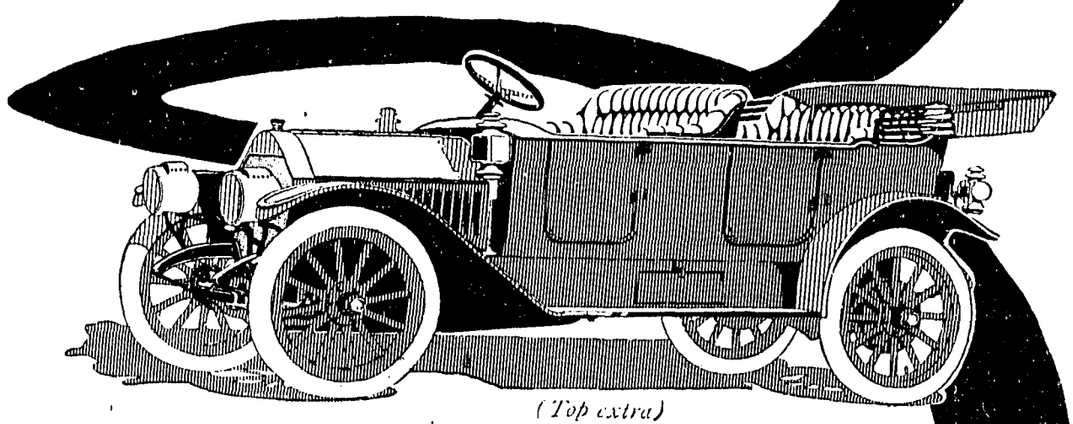
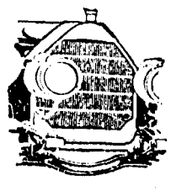
Advantages of the Maxwell

Power—a world of it—enables the big, new Maxwell Special to cope with all emergencies. The 4¼x-5¼ long-stroke, quiet motor develops 36-horsepower. Large valves, adjustable push rods, self-contained automatic oiling system, Stromberg carburetor and dual ignition with Splitdorf magneto and batteries reinforce the motor's work. A full-floating rear axle and drop-forged "I"-beam front axle are excellent features.



(Top extra)

Style—that will make you proud of your car—distinguishes the Maxwell Special. This new ventilated fore-door, flush-side, vestibuled steel body with inside control, and a Columbia Honeycomb type radiator make it an aristocrat among cars. It is finished in Royal green, with deep, soft upholstering.



Price is the big consideration in buying a car. You buy the big Maxwell for $1280, because that price has been made possible by the wonderful factory facilities and unequaled distributing power of the United States Motor Company.

RAMSEYS ENTERTRIN AT SPACIOUS HOME

(Press' Special Service)

BELL SPRINGS, June 17—The social dance, given at Ramsey's home ranch near Bell Springs, June fifteenth was a decided success. The spacious living room after cleared of all its furnishings, provided a very good floor for the dancers, who began to assemble about eight o'clock from the neighboring ranches.

The long porch and apple trees were hung with assorted china lanterns adding much to the beauty and brightness of the merry scene.

Everyone enjoyed the delightful music furnished by Mr. J. G. Short and Ernest Johnson, with violins assisted by Mrs. Philo Short on her guitar. They danced all night until long after dawn only ceasing long enough to partake of the dainty repast served at midnight.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey were: Philo Short and wife, Ernest Johnson and wife, Fay Dryden and wife, John Hayden and wife, Maurice Hayden and wife, Wm. Cyrus and wife, Blade Ramsey and wife; Misses Mary Hayden, Lily Simmerley, Nina Bowman, Selma and Rose Grothe, Ida Grenberg; Messrs. J. G. ABOUT THE FARM

EDITED BY C. A. BERNHARD
Secretary of the Ukiah Farmers' Club

It has been shown in many ways during the past few years that farmers secure a very small proportion of the final price paid by the consumer of farm products. For instance the steer for which the farmer gets $60 brings the restaurant man about a thousand dollars. The apples for wheh the farmer gets one cent each costs the consumer 5 cents each. We are all asking, Why is it?

It has long been the opinion of the writer that the farmer is to blame. We reason this way: First the farmer is not well educated. By education we mean "brain training." J. J. Jeffrey was a giant before he ever entered the prize ring. But, was not a great fighter. In his first fights he was all strength and no skill. Long periods of training in the gymnasium and a good many fights finally made a great fighter of him but did not make any larger or more powerful man.

The case of the prize fighter is to my mind a good example of what education might do for the farmer. At present this brain is big enough and good enough but it is not trained. At the same time the brains of the business world, the men with whom the farmer must deal, are trained to the minute.

Now what is brain training? We believe it is any course of study which will make a man a good rapid thinker, a clear reasoner, teach him how to get and use information which he does not have, and finally give him confidence in himself and has ability to grapple with any problem. One trouble has been the farmer's well known slowness of mind. Before he is well started on a problem the business man has seen clear around him and has his money cornered. He also lacks imagination, and mind you, imangination is the greatest single power among men.

Referring again to the prize fighter, his trainers do not train him by giving him as many fights a day as he can stand. They give him physical training, systematically arranged to develope the use of his muscles. He punches the bag, he runs on the road, skips rope, rolls a sand bag, swings on the rings and hundreds of other things to limber him up and make him both quick and strong.

That is just what education should and must do for any man. Farmers often think education is simply a stuffing of facts. That is an error. Committing facts will not make an educated man. The mind must be taught to congregate, assimilate, dissect turn over and over the great mass of material available, and learn to make us that part which is good for its immediate needs. To do this our schools depend on Mathematics, History, Science and Language. These are the tools of the mental gymnasium. When farmers learn that fact, our schools will be much better patronized. We see good healthy boys with big fine brains around our town every day but these brains are of little value because they have not been trained.

Now what has all this to do with bookkeeping. Let us see. The farmer has been producing, all these years, without any records of cost and returns. He starts in at the beginning of the season and he hopes to get a good price for his crop. He does not know exactly what it will cost him to produce the crop or what he must get for it. He seems to think that what the dealer offers him is the proper worth as regulated by supply and demand. He does not know that supply and demand have long ago been largely eliminated by the dealer.

The dealer is a Bookkeeper. He has his record for many years back and he knows how to use them. He figures from both ends and the middle and when he gets through if there is anything more than a bare living for the farmer it is only because the farmer has organized and learned some of the "A, B, C's" of figuring. The record is the same in every state. Wherever the farmer is unorganized as a class of buisness men, without records of cost and average products and a good selling machine, the dealer has figured him out of all but a bare living, and just because the dealer is a bookkeeper and has the "rght dope" and the farmer has nothing but a grocery and implement bill staring him in the face, which tend to force him to accept what is offered.

The dealer also figures from the other end, the consumers end. The great question is always, "How much can we force the consuer to pay?" The margin between what the producer will accept and what the consumer will pay is the field of operation for all those persons between the farmer and the city consumer. The rairload, the storage company, the commission man, the warehouse man the wholesaler and the retailer are all interested and each one figures to take no chances. He adds on a certain definite percentage as his pay.

Now in this whole scheme the only person who ought to play safe and not loose is the farmer, he is the only one who does loose. He is to blame. He will always be the under dog and the looser unless he educates himself and begins to farm scientifically and make his farming a business instead of an occupation.

To us, the first requisite for a change is for all farmers to begin to study their work and keep accurate accounts of the cost of production, and these costs must take into consideration every item of labor or other expense. The children and the farmers wife must not work for nothing. The farmer himself must begin to recognize the fact that he should have compensation for his time.

When this is done the cows that do not pay the proper income will be butcheerd. The crops that are farmed at a loss will be replaced by those with more money in them. The farmers hours of manual toil will be reduced and his sons and daughters will grow up with a great respect for the "business of farming," instead of a contempt for the occupation of the farmer.

For years we have been convinced that the proper starting place for this education of the farmer is with the business side of his work He needs to know more about conserving the present products than about how to grow more of them. Let us begin with an account of everything we have on the farm. It is not really difficult to do.

As I said last week, I am here and willing to give personal advice to any farmer about this work of bookkeeping. I will get him the proper book and show him how to use it. No charge of any kind will be made for this assistance.

What is the cost of producing a dozen eggs on the farm each month in the year?

What is the average cost of producing a bushel of wheat as determined by ten years average? Who can answer?

What is the average cost of a ton of hay, wheat, oats or barley, as detemined by ten year crops?

What is the average cost of producing bacon, ham and shoulder pork, as shown by ten years trial?

Beef ditto?

What does it cost to raise a horse to any given age?

And so on, question after question can be asked. Now the manufacture knows the answer to all such questions when they apply to his business. Why not the farmer?
